

“When I Have Sung My Songs To You”

University Glee Club of New York City
248th Members’ Concert with our special guests, Treble

Masonic Hall NYC – Grand Lodge Room
Saturday, May 19th 2018, 8:00 p.m.

Entrance on 46 West 24th Street, New York City
Afterglow Gala Reception to follow at the Masonic Hall Banquet Room

The University Glee Club will once again open the doors of our home at Masonic Hall NYC for our Spring Concert, this time with our special guests and longstanding friends, Treble, New York City’s premier and longest established women’s a cappella ensemble. The men of the UGC will of course again treat you to another evening of entertaining pieces from many genres, including selections by Gounod, Schubert, Leonard Bernstein, Randall Thompson, Z. Randall Stroepe, William Dawson, Moses Hogan, and Ernest Charles’ beautiful “When I Have Sung My Songs To You”. Our “Black Tie” Gala Afterglow will be held after the concert in Masonic Hall, and we’ll dance as usual to the incomparable sound of the Joe Holmes Swing Band. All in all it will be another great evening of music drawn from the best of the men’s - and women’s - choral traditions! Please join us!!

Tickets are available by returning the form on the reverse, or on our website at ugcofny.org/tickets

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB OF NEW YORK CITY
248th MEMBERS' CONCERT

Saturday, May 19th, 2018 at 8:00 p.m.
Masonic Hall NYC – Grand Lodge Room
Afterglow Gala Reception in the 2nd Floor Banquet Room (Dress is “Black Tie”)

These concerts would not be possible without additional support from members, and your participation in the Concert Support program this year would again be deeply appreciated.

It should be another festive evening. We look forward to seeing you there!
